

IIHF Medical Supervisor Job Description

Before the event

- Serve as contact person and expert for questions from the OC/ECMO
- Review the Emergency Action Plan (EAP), PEMQ, Nutritional Menu
- Contact ECMO

During the event

- Meet with ECMO and complete Medical Supervisor Checklist
- Site inspection: verify compliance with IIHF Medical Regulations, IIHF Medical Guidelines and IIHF Anti-Doping Regulations
- Gather information on hospital services
- Check practice rink(s)
- Ensure that the doping control room (DCS) and waiting room meets the standards as outlined in the IIHF Event Codes, Chapter 2
- Chair the Team Medical Personnel Meeting (TMPM) and explain the Event's Medical and Dental Program
- Collect contact information from all attending medical staff, including their function (physician, therapist, etc.)
- Organize and oversee rescue on ice practice sessions (removal of injured player)
- Oversee medical and dental care
- Act as a liaison between Event Medical Team / Team Medical Personnel
- Attend the Directorate meetings
- Keep Directorate Chairperson informed on all medical matters
- Attend games and ensure that the Event Medical Team and ambulance with equipment are in place
- Liaise with Doping Control Officer, if any
- Act as a Concussion Spotter and ensure that IIHF Concussion Protocol is followed
- Collect Daily Injury Report Forms
- Collect Athlete and Referee IRS forms after every game
- Comply with IIHF Social Media Policy (Press communication through the Directorate Chairperson)
- Maintain confidentiality based on players' consent
- Do not treat athletes

After the event

- Write a short report on medical and doping control for the Championship
- Communicate doping control concerns to Chairperson or IIHF Office

Championship Report

- Medical care
- Hospital care
- Nutrition
- Injuries
- Doping Control
- Recommendations